MAN OF THE YEAR

Bishop David L. Brooks

This year the Tacoma Facts has selected for its Man of the Year, Apostle Bishop D. Brooks He is the Pastor of Holy Trinity Temple Church Of God In Christ. Bishop Brooks is a man of FAITH he not only teaches it, but he lives it. During our observation of Bishop Brook in 1981, he has stepped out into the community to help many. Oftentimes, according to reliable sources, He help people whom he has never seen before in obtaining food, shelter, clothing and financial assistant.

In the process of his helping hand, he makes it quite clear, that the help is not coming from him, but as a result of faith in God to deliver.

Bishop Brooks is an old fashion kind of pastor. He believes in doing things in a honorable way. This includes personal relationships, business relation- or just general relationships. His manner is very quiet and deliberate. He makes himself available to those who not only need help from him, but to those who don't necessarily realize they need any help until he has the job done.

Bishop Brooks gives spiritual and natural counselling. He is something like the man waiting in the shadow to catch you *lest you fall.*If you are confused and can't find your way, he makes himself available.

He has been in the ministry for 32 years and in 25 of those years, he has been married to his wife, Rose. They have birth 8 children, one who is deceased. Their ages range from 21 years old to 5 years old. there were 3 boys and 5 girls. Bonnie, Timothy, Deborah, Enoch, Rachel and Elizabeth.

It is not always necessary to be the reknown personality in the community, city, state, or country. What is more important, is that there are many people who quietly work as busy as a bee to make life easier for someone else. We know this to be true of Bishop and are honored to receive Bishop Brooks AS OUR CHOICE FOR THE Man Of The Year 1981.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Betty Fleming

The Tacoma Community is privileged to name Mrs. Betty Fleming of 913 North Stevens Street as its 1982 Woman of the Year. She was nominated by her All My Somedays writing group. The group felt that Mrs. Fleming exemplifies those qualities which make Tacoma a city of hope and therefore a better place in which to live.

Mrs. Fleming is kind and unselfish in every respect.

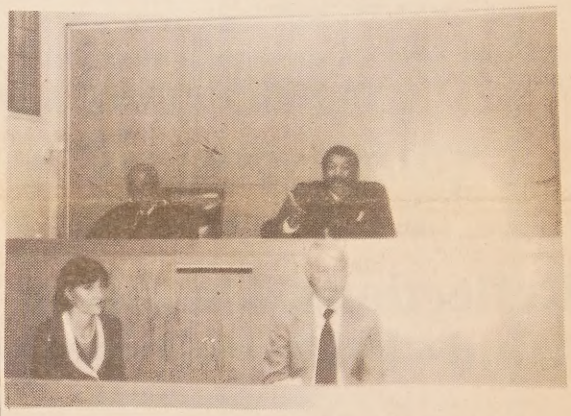
Although a single parent, some 19 years ago while working at Remann Hall, she took a foster child with disabilities, Doretha into her home and loved and cared for her along with her own daughter, Adele. With the love and guidance of Mrs. Fleming, Doretha has developed into a fine young woman and is now a senior at the School for the Deaf in Vancouver, Washington, where she is an honor student. Adele, has developed in an admirable hard working young woman. She s presently a third year music student at Chapman College, Orange County, California. Also it should be mentioned that Mrs. Fleming has a history of making her own home a home away from home for students and new comes in the community. She has served her country and community through her work abroad and at home with the United States Special Service and the American Red Cross.

Mrs. Fleming is also a fighter for outh, she continues to make personal visits to businesses in the city encouraging them to hire young Black youth. She has also worked with handicapped children in various capacities.

After her tours abroad she, she worked locally with Pierce County schools, there she related to the students and their individual needs% they loved her for her concern and t oday many of these students are regular visitors.

By the way, she is presently writing her autobiography which is expected to be published this spring. Mrs. Fleming is a jewel and we all salute her!!

HISTORY IN TACOMA



Judge Jack E. Tanner (L) Judge Franklin D. Burgess (r)

On Wednesday of last week, history was made in Tacoma Franklin Douglas Burgess was sworn in as U.S. Magistrate by his former law partner and good friend U.S. District Judge Jack E. Tanner before a host of well wishers, friends and members of the bar.

The crowning moment came when his mother, Mrs. Ollie Burgess, of Eudora Arkansas, assisted her son with his judicial robes. "This is a proud moment for me. I've wanted this and I've worked very hard to get it"said Burgess.

Burgess, age 46, was former chief counsel for U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)for region 10.

Many of the guests paid tribute to Burgess with words of admiration and praise.

Among the many Supreme Court Justices were Hugh Rosellini and Floyd Hicks, Vernon Pearce of the Court of Appeals - who said Burgess was a man of quiet wisdom and quiet strength and that hhe respected him for his legal ability and community interest. Lenny Wilkens, Seattle Super Sonic Coach paid homage to his friend former All American basketball star,F.D. Burgess.

Judge Burges has been judge pro tem of Tacoma Municipal Court, former assistant city attorney. He also served as President of the NAACP Tacoma Branch, a member of the Tacoma Civil Service Board. He is an Airforce veteran.

Judge Erling Tollefson ofTacoma said Burgess is the All American Man. The Tacoma Facts is honored to be able to write this story about a citizen who is a credit to this community. Page 2

Mayor Sworn In

City Councilman Douglas Sutherland was sworn in as Mayor of Tacoma in a quick ceremony along with other re-elected City Council persons.

Virginia Taylor's Outside Looking In

1981 has almost gone - we had a lot of things happen in T-TOwne and the World - Let's recap.

The Tacoma Facts predicted Andy Young's mayoral win March of 1980 - He made it in 1981 Mayor of Atlanta.

Lena Horne looks better at 64 years than when she was 40 - while Liz Taylor at 49 looks 64.

Carl Brown quit Tacoma Housing Authority board and Bill Gilven was terminated.

Sutherland became mayor and we have 6 Blacks wanting his council seat.

Tacoma Dome is taking shape and the Pantages is humming along.

They caught a man who is alledged to have killed 2 of the 28 children of Atlanta - What's happened to the hunt for the killer(s) of the other 26. The Tacoma Facts continues to wear our ribbon.

OIC needs help - The Urban League is still with us. (MDC) Metropolitan Development Council is only a shadow of its former self and they've moved to 25th and Tacoma Avenue.

Minority Concerns Task Force still meets on Wednesdays 8 a.m. at the Community House on 13th and M Street. Black Collective meets every Saturday morning at 8 a.m. at the City Association of Colored Women's Club House. The NAACP continues to meet every 2nd and 4th Monday at 7 p.m. 1108 South 13th.

We are still hoping D.C. (Washington) will get representation in Congress and January 15 (Martin Luther King, Jr.)birthday will be a National Holiday.

I lost all my action;the Raiders lost, the Seahawks lost - for Superbowl Sunday however, I predict - Tampa and San Diego although it will probably be Dallas and Cincinati. I say go Dogs - Huskies - Take the Roses.

Ali was conquered by Father time whle Sugar Ray makes $$$$$.

On a more serious note - a lot of hardship is upon a lot of people - hopefully the future will be brighter this coming year.. I am thankful for my health and strength and for my friends who believe in me. I'd like to wish each and every one a Happy and prosperous New Year. Don't forget the Black eyed peas and greens. We, at the Tacoma Facts thank you for your support throughout this past year.

Goodbye Joe/Just So Long

On December 31, Josesph Hawthorne, Manager of K Street Branch of Puget Sound National Bank will be retiring. This man has been a fixture in the community for many years. He will be missed by all of us. He was never too busy to say hello, how are you, doing?, to any customer that entered the Bank.

The Facts salutes Joe Hawthorne, a mighty fine fellow. Good Luck and enjoy yourself.

Reflections On My Mind--1981

by Makel Spencer

During the past year we have met each day with a common uncertainty. At the commencement of 1981 we saw a new president be inaugurated; during his inception he implemented Reagonomics--a financial blow even to those with the midas touch. His economic program has revealed itself to be progressive for some while simultaneously regressive for others. Penny-pinching has become a way of life for many Americans.

The world situation has been worsen with the advent of nuclear war armaments. No man, woman, or child can be considered safe from such destructive weaponry. The struggle for freesom in all of its exemplifications is still being wedged by the majority of the populance of South Africa. Blacks, Asians, and Indians in South Africa are subjected to a most debilitating life while the minority regime (the white populance) are accorded total freedom. The inequities are prevalent throughout every facet of that apartheid society.

1981 has indeed been a year whereby foundations and traditions have been broken. Nothing seems stable anymore. Many of us live in constant fear of the unknown. Today we could be employed; tomorrow we could be unemployed. The dollar value of raw materials continue to inflate. Everything seems to be on the increase. The divorce rate among young people continues to grwo, while national and international crime have reached astronomical proportions. It is a wonder the world we live in does not collapse.

All hope is not gone. We must begin to re-evaluate ourselves and determine our destiny. The future in a more productive form is our true destiny. Only when we confront vis-a-vis those problems inherent to all of us will we be able to move progressively into 1982. We must learn to control matters directly affecting us. . THE FACTS Newspaper share a commonality with all our readers in that progress can only be made through hard work and relentless determination. THE FACTS staff, reporters, and publisher wishes all our readers and supporters in the words spoken many-many times before a Happy Happy and progressive New Year for 1982.

Happy New Year

An Independent View from Capitol Hill

BY HON. GUS SAVAGE
First Black journalist ever elected to Congress

Now that I have come to the end of my first year as a Member of the House of representatives, I would like to share with our many reader across the nation what we view as some of our major accomplishments.

In various oral and written statements, I have described myself as a legislator, educator, communicator, initiator, and, at times, an agitator. We will touch upon activities that fall wit hin these categories, although some may overlap.

Legislator

We have introduced two bills to aid minority and small business, another to assist job-seekers who use mass transit, and a package of five bills to honor former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis. We have proposed a total of 10 bills, and still pending are a 40-page enterprise zones bill and another measure that would provide relief for persons who are out Urban Development. If enacted, the legislation would prohibit foreclosure up to 36 months.

We have co-sponsored more than 50 bills and resolutions. Among these are a bill to extend the authorization of youth training and employment programs, to authoirize intensive and remedial education programs for youths, and for other purposes; a bill to amend the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 to prohibit military assistance under the Act, and to prohibit sales or credits under the Arms Export Control Act, to El Salvador;and a bill to prohibit discrimination in insurance on the basis of race, color, religion, sex or national origin. I co-sponsored a concurrent resolution expressing the sense of the Congress that the United States should not invite officials of the Republic of South Africa to visit until apartheid is ended.

Educator Our Workshop on Economic Development was well-received by participants during the 11th annual congressional Black Caucus Legislative Weekend in September. The Washington Post, inits September 26 edition, quoted two participants who said this workshop illustrated the best of what could be accomplished over the weekend. We also conducted a Workshop of Mass Transportation. My workshops were significant in that they marked the first time that Caucus workshops moved beyond traditional Black only problem areas.

We convened the first hearing of the House Small Business Committee in Chicago on July 18. Some 25 area minority entrepreneurs testified. Directing the hearing was Congressman Parren J. Mitchell of Maryland, committee chairman.

Federal procurement, policy, and participation were main topics of our Minority at the Crossroads business conference on June 27 at Chicago State University.

Communicator

We are quite pleased with the response to our weekly column now appearing in approximately 100 newspapers, members of the National Newspaper Publishers Association% and our weekly radio show, aired by three stations in Chicago and carried in newscasts of the 100-member station National Black Network.

We have sent to our constituents three eight-page, tabloid newspapers, one two-page newsletter, and special mailings. we frequently send out news releases to Chicago and, depending on the majnitude of the subject, to media outlets across the nation.

Initiator and Agitator

Though the expression has appeared in several places since I coined it early in the life of the Reagan Administration, I was first to size up our President as a reverse Robin Hood, robbing the poor and giving to the rich. This was picked up by Newsweek magazine.

Wiscosin Steel

We are quite proud of our role in assisting some 350 laid-off works of Wisconsin Steel Mill gain their pension benefits under the Rule of 65. on April 9, 150 of these workers and members of their suffering families came to Washington at my invitation to lobby before Congress and bring their plight to the attention of Reagan Administration officials.

Leaders of the Save Our Jobs Committee met in my office with officials of the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corp., and the Economic Development Administration (EDA). Incidentally, EDA is still trying to sell the defunct steel facility. Some 3,500 steelworkers lost their jobs when the mill, located in my district, went bankrupt on March 27, 1980.

8,000 Calumet Jobs

We re still keeping our eyes on the negotiations betwewen the Norfolk and Western Railway and the trustee and receiver for the trustee and receiver for the bankrupt and shutdown Rock Island Railroad, owner of the old Pullman freight line which serves the Calumet industrial complex, one of the nation's largest.

While we were instrumental in getting the Federal Railway Administration to rescind its order to shutdown the line, and the Interstate Commerce Commission has granted extensions of its temporary order allowing N&W to continue operations, we are hopeful that this matter can be brought to a successful conclusion between the parties involved.

Our major concern is the 8,000 jobs that must be saved in an already economically depressed area. Unemployment in the area is approximately 18.5 percent.

Solidarity Day

We were successful in getting 39 other members of the House of Representatives to support the AFL-CIO sponsored Solidarity Day on September 19, in Washington, D.C. National civil rights and women's groups joined with labor organizations in a massive demonstration to protest the Reagan Administration's assult on social programs. In addition to a*Dear Colleague* letter sent to my fellow Members of the House, I walked in the front line with leaders of the march down Constitution Avenue.

Voting Rights

Our remarks on the House floor in support of extending the Voting Rights Act of 1965 werer picked up by the ABC-TV network in its Good Morning America show on the day following the debate. The House passed the measure to extend this important Act.

Other Highlights

Tour of Africa

We were part of a seven-member congressional delegation which spent 18 days in six African countries. This fact-finding Angola, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Somalia, and racist South Africa.

Awards in 1981

We have been honored by a number of organizations this year. Both the evanston, Illinois NAACP and the Maryland State Conference of NAACP Branches have named me Freshman Congressman of the Year.

The Chicago South Chamber of Commerce presented me iwth its Achiever of the year award, and the Cook County Bar Association gave me its Presidential Award

Scriptures

Psalms 121

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; he that keepeth thee will not slumber. The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from evil; he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

SULLIVAN LAUNCHES NATIONWIDE YOUTH JOBS CRUSADE: Chalenges Private Sector To Invest In America's Future

"The end is not yet" delcared Rev. Leon Sullivan, the fiery outspoken Pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Philadelphia, as he prepared for a nationwide swing from coast to coast appealing to 5,000 business leaders to make youth job pledges.

Referring to the Biblical expression that tells believers "To endure to the end," Rev. Sullivan, founder and chairman of the Opportunities Industrialization Centers of America (OIC/A) job training network, announced to his National Industrial Advisors his Youth Jobs Crusades plan. He asked his business advisors to meet and mobilize small and medium-sized businesses to join in a private sector initiative that will bring some hope to the unemployed youth of Aerica.

"We must invest in America's future, even while we endure the pain of the present economic recession," Rev. Sullivan said. Outlining a six-month plan that will involve the Industrial advisory Councils of the local OIC affiliates as well as OIC volunteer leaders in more than 100 communities, Rev. Sullivan spoke with deep feeling about the crisis in federal funding and the need to have private sector initiatives move as quickly as possible to bridge the gap. Rev. Sullivan said:

"The business leaders who put President Reagan in office have been saying, 'let's have less government; the private sector can do it better.' Well, here's their chance. The performance of business in areas like youth unemployment and training has, up to now, been disappointing. Only one big company in 10 contributes significantly to this area. But there are 13 million companies in this country and if only one percent would hire one youth, we will have gone a long way towards solving the problem. I am beginning the Jobs for Youth Crusade to launch a national campaign to put OIC in the hearts and minds of America."

Rev. Sullivan pointed out, "not only is the survival of the existing OIC's at stake, but the stabilization of our communities, reduction of crime, and the providing of an alternative to hopelessness and despair compels me to undertake this task."

Information

Wintertime, Booze & Bad Weather

Bad weather, bad habits and the coming holiday cameiin for concerned comments today from Tacoma's Acting Chief of Police Richard A. Amundsen.

"We know better, but we all still get caught up in a complex turmoil," the Chief contends. "That includes last minute rushes and traffic jams, parties and heavier than normal drinking--all kinds of pressures."

According to Chief of Police, persons subjected to such stresses are less able to cope with normal, everyday problems of safe driving.

Since holiday occasions for drinking are endless so are chances for accidents in traffic, the Chief emphasized. Alcohol is a factor in as many as half of our traffic accidents. You can help solve the No.1 problem if you :

.Remember that alcohol slows reflexes, impairs coordination and reduces visual acuity. You can't react as fast as you can be sober.

.Know your limits--and stay within them. Alcohol build-up in the blood depends on: (1) number and strength of drinks;(2)time elapsed since drinking began;(3)body weight; and(4)quantity and kind of food in the stomach.

.Take public transportation, or let a sober friend drive, if you do over-party.

Chief Amundsen concluded with this warning, "Our department will be out with all the personal we can muster to protect those who can't cope with the stresses of the seasons--of their own accord. This New Years Eve the department is joining other local law enforcement agencies led by the Washington State Patrol in a coordinated effort to apprehend drinking drivers."

J.J. JACKSON

Dr. Charles King, Jr., president of the Urban crisis Center in Atlanta and a dynamic campaigner against racism in America, will be featured in this week's edition of KOMO-TV's "UP FRONT," airing Saturday, January 2, 12:30-1:00 p.m. on Channel 4.

The program covers highlights of Dr. King's hard-hitting message on the "Black Crisis of the '80s," delivered during a recent appearnace sponsored by the Seattle-King County Head Start Program. The former Baptist minister, who worked with the President's Commission on Civil Disorders in the 1960s, says that the problems identified by that investigation have grown worse because society still creates, maintains and condones urban ghettos. Dr. King also offers an eloquent and ironically humorous demonstration of the games people play when skin color is at issue.

J.J. Jackson is the hsot of "UP FRONT," a weekly public affairs presentation of KOMO—TV. The January 2 edition also includes an interview with Psychologist Paul Robinson, author of "Manipulating Parents, who offers advice on the parent/child relationship; and brief reports on the Black Diamond Bakery, an unusual collection of Bibles, and a new invention that starts a car engine when the driver's door is opened.

The program will be retelecast Sunday, January 3, 6:30-7:00 a.m. on Channel 4. "UP FRONT" is produced by Jimm Brown and directed by Dave Schnuckel with production assistance by Gail King.

GIVING A PARTY? SIMPLIFY!

Giving a party need not mean days of menu planning and hours in the kitchen fixing a dozen different things to serve.

The answer to a stand-out party is to simplify. Serve fewer kinds of foods and drinks but make each one more memorable.

For example, a single succulent roast beef or a plump roast turkey can be the basis for delicious party dining. Corn on the cob and a mixed green salad make excellent accompaniments. Cost-wise a handsome cut of meat is probably no more expensive than the traditional varied party fare, but the impression is far more luxurious.

You can create the same kind of bountiful impression with cheese by choosing a giant wedge of one kind, such as Swiss, rather than an assortment. A choice of several kinds of crackers and breads lends variety and interest and needs no preparation.

At the bar, offer just three kinds of beverages—perhaps a pitcher of sangria, white wine and one kind of mixed drink.

Consider the party's theme of simplicity when deciding what to wear and how you'll fix your hair. Choose a dress that's understated, but chic, perhaps black, with a daring slit on the side. There are a number of stylishly simple hairdos you can try. But remember, your hair will not only look but feel great no matter what the style if you use Sulfur-8® Hair and Scalp Conditioner.

Jean Watley's Who's Who

Happy New Year to everyone. During 1981 I have met so many new friends and associates. I have truly enjoyed every minute of it. I must not let the year end without saying Thank you to some very special people to me. It all began with my best friend, Bertha Edwards, I was the bridesmaid at her wedding four years ago. I never thought I would ever be returning to Tacoma...There was her new family who took me in as though I was there new daughter too.

Mr. & Mrs. Cyril & Bertie Edwards. They were very nice to me and my family. Of course, there was Dwight Edwards, the new husband of my friend. He treated me just like he had been knowing me all my life. Gertrude Taylor, another member of that family always made me feel welcome . To the Edwards and Taylor family, thank you. As I began to grow up a little in Tacoma I made other friends, I inherited the True Vine Community Church family. There are not very many words to described how they looked after me and my family. To Rev. Leo C. and Missionary Barbara J. Brown, leaders of True Vine have certainly been inspirational to my stay here in Tacoma. Thank you. The Tacoma Facts became another reality in my life in this past year. I met more friends as I settled in. There were all kinds of events going on. it seemed that if one of the churches wasn't conducting a revival or some kind of concert, the Civic organizations or social groups were doing something. There has been nothing boring about this year.

I have too many people on the list to try to acknowledge all, but stay on the safe side, thank you Tacoma for this year. I thank all of my Who's Who personalities. I enjoyed each of you.

Better Health Today

World Health Organization (WHO)

I thought it would be appropriate for some of you to acknowledge the work of our International Organization whose primarily objective is insuring good health for the peoples of the world.

WHO gives assistance to developing countries in training doctors, improving sanitation and water supplies, and providing medical research on diseases peculiar to certain regions. It is active in helping to control malaria, leprosy, yaws, elephantiasis, syphilis, trachoma, tuberculosis, and less well-known diseases. It also offers services to safeguard the health of mothers and children.

Through WHO, international quarantine regulations and standards for medicines and vaccines have been established. The organization also broadcasts news and information regarding epidemics in all parts of the world.
